

LOGOBIPA d.o.o.

International Management Trainee (m/f)

- Detailed information about the 16-month International Management Trainee Program can be found on our REWE International career page- During the first six months you will be posted in one of our stores in your country of employment, receiving extensive basic training to handle your first management responsibilities- Throughout the next four months, you will get to know our international business and take on project-related activities in one of our other European operational business units- The subsequent two-month job rotation in the central division of your country of employment will give you further insights and an active role in two selected departments- Another exciting project on a comprehensive topic then awaits you for the next three months in our Austrian or German headquarters- In the last month of your program you will get to know the local interfaces and contacts regarding your future position within REWE International- During the Trainee Program, you will benefit from a personal mentor, group-wide networking and exchange with our managers- Furthermore, you will receive special professional and personal development training courses and coaching

Izvor: www.moj-posao.net

Lokacija: Zagreb

Datum objave: 18. Dec 2020.

Datum isteka: 01. Jan 2021.