Sales Business Development Manager - Furniture Sales

Meblomarket is a market leader in furniture distribution with a new branch office in Bosnia and Herzegovina. We are the supplier of contract furniture and fast moving furniture products. Due to our new market development plans we are now seeking to appoint an experienced Business Development Manager to coordinate the sales and distribution. You will deal directly with a Corporate market, designated suppliers and buyers. This role will see you responsible for providing outstanding customer service to clients and assisting with the growth of the business. The successful candidate will have experience in the sales industry and will have a creative flair. Experience in the Furniture arena will be a key advantage, but not essential. Looking for career progression you will be a highly motivated individual with good communication skills. Working for a newly-established business you will be on a base of a solid sales bonus. (dependent on industry experience).
