

VELUX BiH d.o.o.

Sales representative

For the purpose of promoting the VELUX roof window system, we hereby seek a young, dedicated person who will be responsible for our sales activities in Federation of BiH. You will be working full-time for our VELUX company located in Ilidža, Sarajevo.

Do you want to sell products that improve people's living environments?

- As a sales representative in the VELUX team, you will create and develop contacts on various levels within building industries in order to promote the concept of bringing daylight and fresh air through the roof. You will identify and visit new projects and actively seek out key persons and decision makers, expanding the market for VELUX products. You will develop the VELUX dealer network and educate installers.
- We expect an active, open-minded and goal-oriented person driven by self-motivation and the interest in making a difference. You have good communication skills and preferably a few years' sales experience within the building industry.
- We offer a challenging job with a great deal of independence and an opportunity to influence the scope of your responsibility. The job includes contacts on many levels, company training and the opportunity to meet fellow professionals from other markets.

Your profile:

- Age between 23 and 35
- Living in Sarajevo Canton
- Preferably some kind of higher education
- Dynamic and flexible
- Practical and "down-to-earth" personality
- Communicative
- Basic knowledge of English
