

Interior Design Service Co-worker (m/f)

- Actively listen to understand customer needs, style and identity and translate this information into relevant, functional, and aesthetic interior design solutions for customers that inspire and enables a better life at work and home, solving the needs and exceeding their expectations. - Use the IKEA product range and interior design competence to create solutions for all types of customers and for their activities to create complete interior design solutions with all aspects as e.g., function, architectural elements, scale, colour, material, shape, form, ergonomics, lighting, sustainability etc. in mind.- Secure high quality, simplicity, efficiency, and cost consciousness throughout the whole planning process to ensure long-term profitability, and constant feedback-based improvement.- Stay up to date on interior design trends and knowledge, changes in how people live in the market and our competition, with the purpose of using this knowledge to deliver excellent and relevant solutions.- Respect routines and responsibilities, work together with other partnering functions, act quickly to exploit commercial opportunities, and understand the impact of your actions on the financial results.

Izvor: www.moj-posao.net

Lokacija: Zagreb

Datum objave: 12. May 2023.

Datum isteka: 22. May 2023.