Vacancy for political and economic analyst

From 2016 there will be a vacancy as a locally employed analyst for political and economic affairs at the Norwegian Embassy in Sarajevo.

All applicants must be citizens of Bosnia and Herzegovina or have a valid and unlimited work- and residence permit.

The Norwegian Embassy is located together with the Swedish Embassy in Ferhadija 20. The Embassy has a staff of 13 persons as well as one/two interns. The main task of the Norwegian Embassy in Sarajevo is keeping the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Oslo informed about the political and socio economic situation and other developments in Bosnia and Herzegovina - as well as working with Norwegian project assistance to Bosnia and Herzegovina.

The main task of the analyst shall be to provide analysis on political, economic, social and media issues in Bosnia-Herzegovina. Observing local news outlets and social media and maintaining contact with key stakeholders will also be part of this work.

The following qualifications and competencies are required:

- A Master's degree in political science or other relevant subjects.
- A strong interest in political and economic developments in Bosnia and Herzegovina and the region.
- A minimum of two years professional working experience on political analysis and socio-economic matters.
- Experience of working with international institutions or foreign agencies will be an advantage.
- Excellent analytical and writing skills.
- Ability to work independently.
- Proven networking skills.
- Critical, independent and objective thought.
- Excellent written and oral English.

Knowledge of Norwegian is considered an advantage, but is not required.

The successful applicant may also be assigned other tasks in the Embassy.

Applications must be written in English and shall be sent in the ordinary post (not by e-mail) to the Royal Norwegian Embassy, Ferhadija 20, 71000 Sarajevo - and shall be at the Embassy at the latest Friday 26 February 2016.

Enclosed with the application must be certified certificates of education as well as written references from previous employers. Contact information for a least three reference persons must be listed. The envelope should be marked "Analyst for political and economic affairs". Only shortlisted candidates will be interviewed.
